

News Lead

Story: Jamuna Bridge Accident

News Lead

Yesterday an Accident near Jamuna Bridge toll eight passengers' death including a Dhaka University student.

Summary Lead

Yesterday an Accident near Jamuna Bridge killed eight passengers including a journalism department student of Dhaka University, six students from other universities and the bus helper; among all, three passengers died at spot and 12 people injured.

Story: Forest Destruction

News Lead

According to an international research organization eleven countries including Bangladesh will loose their original forest because of logging and agricultural settlement.

Summary Lead

At a news conference held at last week, non-profit research organization World Resource Institute has revealed from their research report that, eleven countries including Bangladesh will loose their remaining five percent of the original forest because of logging and agricultural settlement.